

RCN Leadership strategy and structure update - 28th May 2014

How have we got to where we are now? (Lynn Chetcuti)

Review, remove, renew. . . . A new wineskin (Joel Thomas)

Supporting notes

RCN Leadership Team

Role:

- Perceiving and enabling the vision of RCN and protecting the agreed cultures that define who we are
- Overseeing the weekly leaders prayer gatherings and any others events organised and hosted by RCN
- Appointing people to their roles among the group of 12 and/or as trustees of RCN, and ensuring that responsibilities of these groups are exercised
- Providing overall leadership and support to the larger RCN leadership group

Who?

Lynn Chetcuti

Yinka Oyekan

Steve Prince

Joel Thomas

(Also currently supported by Barry Kirk)

RCN Group of 12 (Extended Leadership)

Prospective segments of extended leadership

- Youth, children, family leaders
- Local government, politics, services
- Business leaders/community
- Big picture, national ministries
- Social action, good news leaders
- Church leaders
- RCN Leadership Team
- Arts, leisure, sport
- Other?

Characteristics, gifting and calling of extended leadership

- Hope and goodness follow behind them (reputation)
- A son/daughter (secure part of the RCN family)
- A pioneer rather than just a practitioner
- Share the vision and values (culture) of RCN
- Embrace church and kingdom
- Endorsed and supported by their church leader

RCN Trustees

The RCN Trust is registered with the Charity Commission and has to abide by its rules and regulations.

The Trust is not the Leadership Team of RCN (although members of the Leadership Team can and do serve as Trustees). It is not responsible for the spiritual leadership and direction of RCN. The Trustees serve to help enable the vision and day-to-day operation of the charity in a manner that is consistent with the principles and values of RCN, and which satisfies the guidelines set out by the Charities Commission.
